CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PARISH COUNCILLORS OF BOURTON-ON-THE-WATER PARISH COUNCIL

Adopted: 6th November 2019

Review: Annually

Introduction

Pursuant to section 27 of the Localism Act 2011, Bourton on the Water Parish Council ('the Council') has adopted this Code of Conduct to promote and maintain high standards of behaviour by its members and co-opted members whenever they conduct the business of the Council, including the business of the office to which they were elected or appointed, or when they claim to act or give the impression of acting as a representative of the Council.

This Code of Conduct is based on the principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty, and leadership.

Definitions

For the purposes of this Code, a 'co-opted member' is a person who is not a member of the Council but who is either a member of any committee or sub-committee of the Council, or a member of, and represents the Council on any joint committee or joint sub-committee of the Council, and who is entitled to vote on any question that falls to be decided at any meeting of that committee or sub-committee.

For the purposes of this Code, a 'meeting' is a meeting of the Council, any of its committees, sub-committees, joint committees or joint sub-committees.

For the purposes of this Code, and unless otherwise expressed, a reference to a member of the Council includes a co-opted member of the Council.

2. Acting solely in the public interest by never using your position to give any advantage, or cause disadvantage to a person; or gain any financial or other material benefits for yourself, your family, friends or associates.
3. Not compromising yourself and the Council by taking care to avoid financial or other obligations that individuals or organisations might use to try and influence how you perform your official duties.
4. Making decisions based on merit when considering public appointments, awarding contracts or putting individuals forwards for rewards and benefits.
5. Fully co-operating with the Council's scrutiny functions to be publicly accountable for your actions and protect the reputation of the Council as a whole.
6. Giving reasons for the decisions and actions you and the Council take in an open and honest way.
7. Making sure that the Council's resources are used appropriately by not using them for political purposes yourself, or allowing people you have authorised to use equipment to do so. This will mean having regard for the Council's various acceptable usage policies and any applicable Local Authority Code of Publicity made under the Local Government Act 1986.
8. Taking all necessary steps to resolve personal conflicts of interest by declaring and registering your pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests using methods the Council has provided, as well as removing yourself from positions of influence when an interest is apparent.
